

Galena Conatser is the founder of Word in Season Ministries. Her real passion and calling is to inspire and empower the Body of Christ. She simply seeks to present Jesus Christ – His compassion and His power to the world and to make room for His manifested glory in the earth realm.

Through Word in Season, she is reaching out to people through acts of compassionate service, destiny schools of spiritual growth and prophetic worship summits. The ministry's focus is to equip God's people to walk in the fullness of His power, they are meant to manifest in their lives.

Over many years, she has faithfully served powerful men and women of God – always submitting herself first to the work of the Kingdom in seeing souls saved and lives changed. Now, as she steps out into another chapter of destiny, sent out under the authority of her bishop, she is excited about what God is doing in unfolding a new ministry.

She has served Detroit World Outreach Christian Center Church (DWO) for many years as the pastor of the Prayer and Prophetic Ministries, under the apostolic leadership of Bishop Benjamin Gibert. Her responsibilities have also included caring for members, serving on the ministerial development team, various teaching and preaching assignments and ministering in area shelters and prisons.

ABOUT GALENA

She has equipped and developed strong leaders in prayer and prophetic ministry, has conducted prophetic conferences, as well as being founder of Heaven on Earth Worship Ministries and the Labor of Love Network.

Galena has been described as an accomplished and straightforward communicator. Through her teachings, believers can come to better know their authority in God, as well as discovering their spiritual gifts and the power of Kingdom connections.

“The joy of my life is ministering to the Lord, loving my family, serving the Body of Christ and pouring into my spiritual sons and daughters,” she says. “Fulfilling my God-given commission to pray, preach and prophesy is what I live for.”

She's a Bible college graduate, an author, an ordained prophet and an anointed minister of the gospel.

In her first book “Running to Win,” she plainly lays out effective principles for every believer to obtain their God given promises.

Galena lives in the Metropolitan Detroit area. She has been joyfully married to her husband Michael for more than 35 years. They have three daughters and eight beautiful grandchildren.

Ministry School Overview

For the Lord gives skillful and godly Wisdom; from His mouth come knowledge and understanding. He hides away sound and godly Wisdom and stores it for the righteous (those who are upright and in right standing with Him)...Proverbs 2:6,7 (Amp)

Each Word in Season School is designed to strengthen members of the Body of Christ, to equip them for effective service and to enable them to live powerful and honorable lives.

Each session includes 12-14 hours of teaching, binders of class notes and activation exercises. At the conclusion of each session, participants will be formally recognized and invited to receive impartation and prophetic ministry during a Word in Season Worship Summit Service.

From Pastor Galena's Desk

One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek, inquire for, and [insistently] require: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord [in His presence] all the days of my life, to behold and gaze upon the beauty [the sweet attractiveness and the delightful loveliness] of the Lord and to meditate, consider, and inquire in His temple. For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter; in the secret place of His tent will He hide me; He will set me high upon a rock. And now shall my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me; in His tent I will offer sacrifices and shouting of joy; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the Lord. Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud; have mercy and be gracious to me and answer me!

- Psalm 27:4-7 (AMP)

David was referred to as a "man after God's own heart" for a reason. He had only one desire – to be with his Lord; to dwell in God's house and behold His beauty continually. David was like any of the rest of us. He had things to do. He had responsibilities. What he was expressing was that the Presence of the Lord was his number one priority.

Once you have witnessed the beauty of the Lord, you want to return again and again. Even if you neglect to do so, there will still be a longing in your heart to be in His Presence. There is an undeniable desire within each of us to dwell in His house. We long to behold His beauty and inquire in His temple.

There have been times of trouble and turmoil in my life. I have to admit that I didn't instantly ask God for the answers. I spent some time inquiring of friends, professionals, books, TV programs, etc. But when the Lord got my attention, and I could sense the call to come into the place where all answers are found, I said yes to the invitation. I discovered that He had just what I needed, and it was only revealed in the place of prayer.

He loves to hide His children in the time of trouble, like a good parent will keep their child protected from a storm. He is our great hiding place. When you look to Him to hide you, you'll begin to feel safe again. You'll see Him as your refuge, and your rock. Your stability returns, even if your life, for the moment seems, like a war. Have you made His presence number top priority in your life?

The School of Discovered Purpose

This School is to assist each student in discovering the gifts of the Father, given to them before they were in their mother's womb. These gifts are referred to as the "motivational gifts."

It is a systematic discussion of each gift listed in Rom 12:6-8: prophecy, serving, teaching, exhortation, giving, administration, and mercy. The discovery of these gifts will empower the student in the pursuit of destiny fulfillment.

Along with the teaching, guest speakers who operate in specific gifting will be invited to share out of their experience. The final class will include a personal gift assessment.
